SPIRITS & WINE BAR

WHISKY & WHISKEY

The best of Tasmania & our global favorites.

TASMANIAN WHISKY

Tasmania is ideally situated to make malt whisky, and yet 150 years after the last licensed Tasmanian distillery closed its doors, it took a whisky lover to realise the environment was perfect.

In 1839, Lady Jane Franklin outlawed distilleries. For 150 years, Tasmanians drank beer, unless they drank Scottish whisky.

Bill Lark, owner, and founder of Lark Distillery and renowned godfather of Australian whisky realised that everything you need for a world-class whisky was in Tasmania: rich fields of barley, an abundance of wonderfully pure soft water, highland peat bogs and the perfect climate to bring all the ingredients together in a marriage of science, art, and passion... “I wonder why there isn’t anyone making whisky in Tasmania” – Bill Lark. In 1992, Bill lobbied the State Government to overturn legislation prohibiting the distillation of spirits (a process he says attracted almost no resistance from government) and was successful in his bid.

Everything changed for Tasmanian Distilling in 2014, when Sullivans Cove Distillery French Oak Cask (HH0525) was named as Best Single Malt Whisky in the World, by the World Whiskies Awards. From here, both the distillery and the Tasmanian Whisky Industry as a whole, shot to international acclaim... and we’ve been trying to keep up ever since!
