

Bringing Tasmania to the table

Old Wharf stands in the historical location of former jetties, piers, homes and taverns from where, since the 1800s colourful traders, merchandisers, exporters and explorers have shipped Tassie's renowned produce across the globe. Today Old Wharf Restaurant brings the Tasmania to the table, with the rhythm of the docks and the movement of the water always in view.

Tasmanian classics reimagined

Chef Alvin Sim and his team curate a menu that celebrates and explores classic dishes – with a Tasmanian twist.

Reimagined and refined, this menu nods to Hobart's past while championing our celebrated produce and boutique Tasmanian growers.

A venue for every occasion

Old Wharf is one of the most flexible options in Hobart. Host anything from a working lunch to a large-scale dinner, with adaptable layouts and menus that make planning straightforward.

Old Wharf Restaurant is best for:

- Relaxed waterfront dining experiences
- Business luncheons and long-table lunches
- Corporate hosting with a focus on Tasmanian produce
- Team celebrations and social occasions
- End-of-year functions and Christmas parties
